

A Man of High Regard

“Receive him in the Lord with all joy, and hold men like him in high regard; because he came close to death for the work of Christ, risking his life to complete what was deficient in your service to me.” Philippians 2:29–30.

1. By his example, _____ shows us the type of life that is highly regarded by God (Phil 2:29).

2. He shows us the exact _____ we should all have (Phil 2:3-5).

3. By his _____ and his _____ he shows us that our top priority should be the _____ of the _____.

4. In Your Hands.
 - A. There is _____ between what’s in your hands and whether or not you are in _____ (Phil 2:5-11).

 - B. It doesn’t matter what you _____ in your hands, it matters what you _____ with it (Phil 2:30).

 - C. Even when you have _____ in your hands, you still have the ability to _____ with the people you meet (Phil 1:12-14).

*“Now I want you to know, brethren, that my circumstances have turned out for the greater progress of the gospel, so that my imprisonment in the cause of Christ has become well known throughout the whole praetorian guard and to everyone else, and that most of the brethren, trusting in the Lord because of my imprisonment, have far more courage to speak the word of God without fear.”
Philippians 1:12-14*

*“Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren who are with me greet you. All the saints greet you, especially those of Caesar’s household.”
Philippians 4:21-22*
